

PHP Task 1

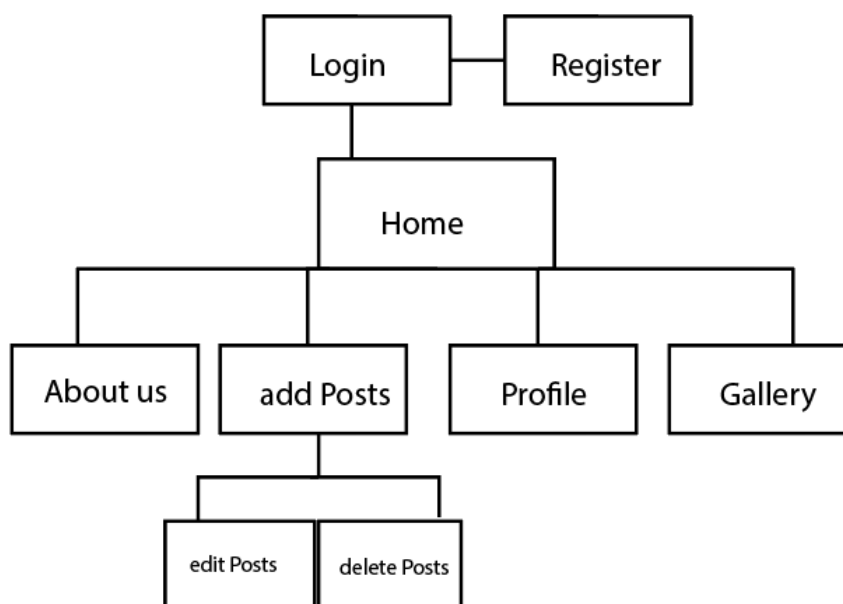

Planning Document

Name of web application :Travellers

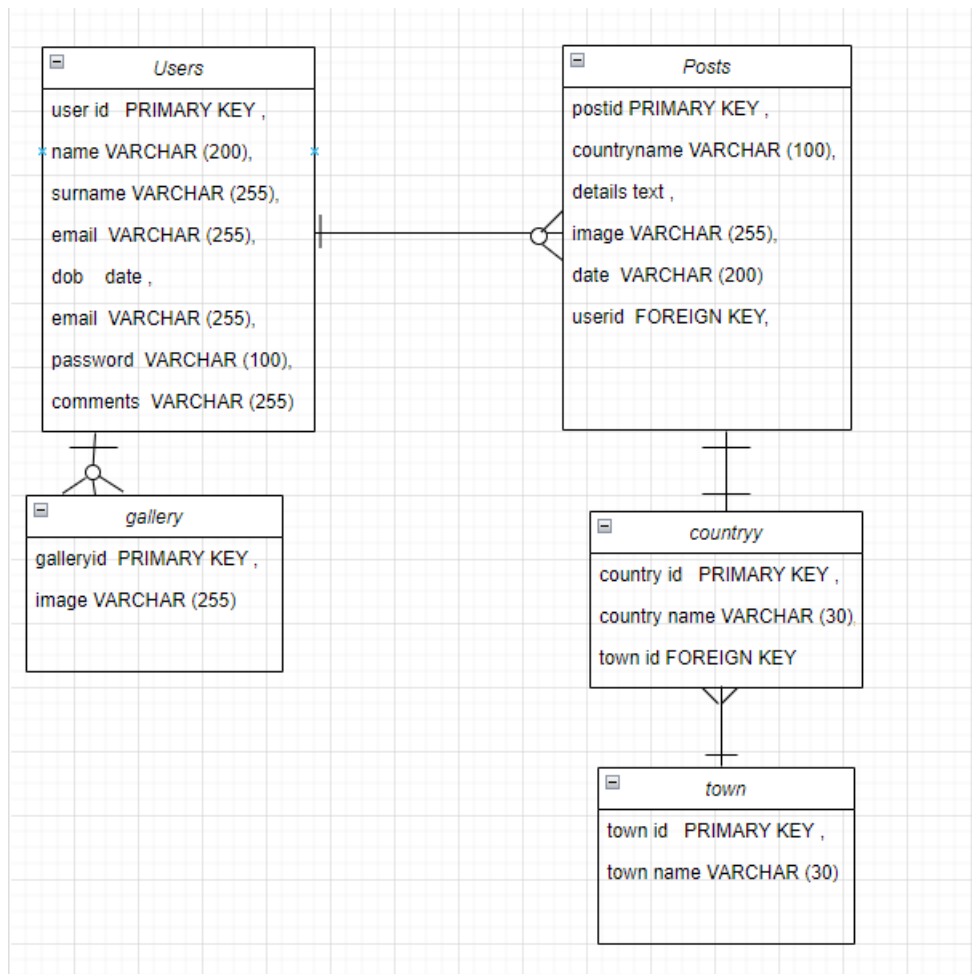

1.The main idea of this web application is of a sharing platform for travellers to share their journeys and experiences. The target audience of the web application is people who have the passion for travelling.

By using this website the user can create a new account and then login . Then in the home page the user can see the posts, and edit or delete the posts. Then in the gallery can add pictures. In the profile page can see the account details or sign out.

2.Site Map

3.Uml

4.Ipo Chart

Test ID	Input	Process	Output
1	Login in with right credentials	The user enters email and password clicks on the login button Show the home page to the user	The user is shown the home page.
2	Sign out	The user clicks the sign out button	The user should be directed the login page.
3	Login with wrong password on login page	A message is shown to the user saying wrong password	A message is shown to the user saying wrong password
4	Click on register here	Retrieve create account page	Retrieve create account page
5	Make a password less than 8 digits	As the user is creating a new account makes the password 7 char.	A message is should be show to the user saying that password needs to be 8 or more digits.
6	password match	a message should be shown saying password doesn't match	a message is shown saying password doesn't match
7	Try to create account with email already existing	Show message the email is already used	Show message the email is already used
8	All field required checking in new account creation if every field is filled.	A message showing all field required is shown to the user	Change screen, to register page once, register take to home page.
9	The user is filling on the create account page.	Fill form and leave an empty box	The user should see a message on top to fill the missing information.
10	Create new account click on create register here	The screen changes , to register page once, page once, login again and show home page.	The screen changes , to register page once, page once, login again and show home page.
11	Add account to database	A new record added to the database	A new record added to the database
12	Click on Create a post	Retrieve the create post page and show.	Change screen to add post page.

13	Fill posts text	The user can fill text post	As the page changes the user can fill the post fields.
14	Add image to post	The user can add image to post	As the user clicks on choose file a tab opens where he can choose an image.
15	Add post to database	Add new record post to the table on php myadmin.	Add new record post to the table on php myadmin.
16	Show all field in the post.	Show all the fields in the post on the home page.	Show all the fields in the post on the home page.
17	Click on Delete button post	Delete post chosen and remove from database and home page	When the user click on the delete icon the post needs to be deleted, update home page and database.
18	Click on edit button post	The page should change and the user can edit the post	The page should change and the user can edit the post
19	The edit information	The user can edit the information.	The user can edit the information.
20	About us page	Retrieve about us page	Change screen and show about us to the user
21	Add Post page	Retrieve post page	Change screen and show post page to the user
22	Gallery page	Retrieve about us page	Change screen and show gallery page to the user
23	Home page	Retrieve about us page	Change screen and show home page to the user
24	Add photos to gallery	Show images to the gallery page	The user can add images to the gallery page.
25	Save images to database	As the user clicks on submit the image is saved on the database.	On phpMyAdmin the image is stored
26	Session checking	User types the URL of a page he is directed to the login if not signed in	User types the URL of a page he is directed to the login if not signed in
27	View profile page	Retrieve profile page	Change screen and show profile page to the user